Tickets to be given on concluding in Amount of Fare.

12. And, for the better carrying into Effect the Purposes of this Act, it is hereby further enacted, That no Person or Persons who shall have hired any such Hackney Coach, shall be entitled to any Relief, or to be heard on any Complaint or Information which he may exhibit either before the said Commissioners, or before any Justice of the Peace, or other Person or Persons having competent Jurisdiction in such case, under or by virtue of any Law relating to Hackney Coaches licensed by the said Commissioners; whether any such Complaint or Information be for Exaction, or for Misbehaviour, or for any other Offence whatsoever, unless he, he or they shall and do, previous to entering upon the hearing thereof, produce and shew forth to the Person or Persons so having competent Jurisdiction, before whom any such Complaint or Information shall have been exhibited, some One or more of the said Notes or Tickets which he shall have received, or might and ought to have received by virtue of this Act.

VI. And be it further enacted, That such Printer so duly appointed shall not furnish or deliver to any Person or Persons whatsoever, any Note or Ticket, or Number or Part of Notes or Tickets, unless the Person or Persons applying to him for the same shall produce to him an Order written or printed, and signed by the said Commissioners, or One of them, or by their Chief Clerk for the time being, whereas shall be written or printed the Number of the Coach for which the Notes or Tickets shall be required, together with the Quantity or Number of the Notes or Tickets to be required; and he is hereby authorized and directed, upon the Production of such Order, to deliver to the Person or Persons producing the same, the Number of Notes or Tickets as expressed in such Order accordingly, and to charge for the same after such Rate as the said Commissioners shall direct for every Hundred; and if the Printer so duly appointed to prepare and print such Notes or Tickets shall deliver the same Notes or Tickets, or any Number or Part thereof, to any Person or Persons without the Production of such Order as hereinafter directed, he shall forfeit and pay for every such Offence the Sum of Fifty Pounds, to be recovered and applied as hereinafter mentioned.

make or still any Spirits in that Part of Great Britain called England, for Exportation from thence to Ireland, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes, as if all and singular the said Rules, Regulations, Restrictions and Provisions (except as in that behalf aforesaid), Fines, Penalties and Forfeitures had been at large inserted in the Body of this Act, and been hereby re-enacted and made applicable to such Distillers in making Spirits in that Part of Great Britain called England for Exportation from thence to Ireland, and to such Spirits so made or distilled in that Part of Great Britain called England and exported from thence to Ireland.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the said First Day of October One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, all and every Distiller and Distillers in Scotland, who shall be defrauds of making or distilling Spirits in that Part of the United Kingdom for Exportation from thence to Ireland, shall be at Liberty so to do, under and subject to the same Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Provisions, Fines, Penalties and Forfeitures (save as in herein in that behalf otherwise particularly provided), as are in or by the said Acts made in the Twenty eighth and Forty fifth Years aforesaid, or in or by any other Act or Acts of Parliament in force immediately before the passing of this Act provided, settled or established, so or in respect of Distillers making or distilling Spirits in Scotland, for Exportation from thence to that Part of Great Britain called England; and all and singular the said Rules, Regulations, Restrictions and Provisions (except as aforesaid), Fines, Penalties and Forfeitures, shall be, and the same are hereby respectively extended to, and shall be applied, provided and put to Execution, for and in respect of all and every Distiller and Distillers, who, from and after the said First Day of October One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, shall make or distill any Spirits in Scotland for Exportation from thence to Ireland, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if all and singular the said Rules, Regulations, Restrictions and Provisions (except as in that behalf aforesaid), Fines, Penalties and Forfeitures, had been at large inserted in the Body of this Act, and been hereby re-enacted, and made applicable to such Distillers in making Spirits to Scotland for Exportation from thence to Ireland, and to such Spirits so made or distilled in Scotland and exported from thence to Ireland.

XXII. And Whereas Distillers in that Part of Great Britain called England, may from time to time during the Continuance of this Act, have on Hand at their several Distilleries, Stocks of Spirits made duty-free for Exportation from thence to Scotland, under and subject to the Rules, Regulations, Restrictions and Provisions, Fines, Penalties and Forfeitures, by the said Acts made in the Twenty eighth and Forty fifth Years aforesaid; and also Distillers in Scotland, may from time to time during the Continuance of this Act, have on Hand at their several Distilleries in Scotland, Stocks of Spirits made duty-free for Exportation from thence to that Part of Great Britain called England, under and subject to the Rules, Regulations, Restrictions and Provisions of the said Acts; and it is expedient to allow the same to be exported to Ireland, in manner hereinafter mentioned: Be it therefore enacted, That, during the Continuance of this Act, it shall and may be lawful to and for any such Distiller or Distillers in England or Scotland respectively, to export the Whole or any Part of such his, her or their Stock or Stocks of Spirits, directly from his, her or their several Distillery or Distilleries in England or Scotland respectively to Ireland, under and subject to the Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Provisions, Fines, Penalties and Forfeitures contained, provided, settled or established in or by this Act, or any other Law or Laws in force at the Commencement of this Act, relating to the Exportation of Spirits made in Great Britain, as far as such Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Provisions, Fines, Penalties or Forfeitures, one or may be applied to the Exportation of such Stock or Stocks, or any Part thereof to Ireland; and the said Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Provisions, Fines, Penalties and Forfeitures shall be provided, used, applied and put in Execution for and in respect of the Exportation of such Stock or Stocks of Spirits, or any Part or Parts thereof respectively, so to be exported to Ireland, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes, as if the said Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Provisions, Fines, Penalties and Forfeitures, had been at large repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this Act, and thereby expressly applied to the Whole or any Part of such Stock or Stocks of Spirits, and the Exportation thereof to Ireland.

XXIII. And Whereas the marketable Strength of Home-made Spirits in Ireland greatly exceeds the Strength at which Distillers in England or Scotland respectively are by Law allowed to send out Spirits, and Spirits of that Strength would be too weak to be marketable in Ireland, and procuring Sale thereof in Ireland, it is expedient to allow the Distillers in England or Scotland respectively to increase, in manner hereinafter mentioned, by Re-distillation, for Exportation to Ireland, the Strength of the Whole or any Part of such their Stocks of Spirits made free of Duty in that Part of Great Britain called England for Exportation to Scotland, or in Scotland for Exportation to England: Be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Distiller or Distillers in England or Scotland respectively, to increase by Re-distillation under the Inspection and Superintendence of the proper Officer or Officers of Excise for Exportation to Ireland, under the Rules and Regulations of this Act, to any Strength not exceeding that of One to Three over Hydrometer Proof, the Whole or any Part of such their Stocks of Spirits so made free of Duty, in that Part of Great Britain called England for Exportation to Scotland, or in Scotland for Exportation to England.

XXIV. And Whereas the Proprietors of Spirits distilled in Ireland, who may have warehoused any such Spirits at any time previous to the First Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, and who by this Act are prohibited from so exporting the same until after the First Day of October One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, will thereby incur and sustain considerable Expenses and Losses, by reason of such Spirits remaining in Warehouse so far beyond the time when the same might have been exported if the said Act had not been had or made; and it is just and expedient that such Proprietors should receive a moderate Compensation for such Expenses and Losses: Be it therefore enacted, That whenever it shall be

An Act to enable His Majesty to settle an Arraignment upon Her Royal Highness the Princess of Wales, during the joint Lives of His Majesty and of Her Royal Highness. [29th July 1814.]

• Most Gracious Sovereign,

27 G. 3. c. 159. WHEREAS an Act of Parliament, passed in the Thirty-fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for enabling His Majesty in full as Assize on His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, during the joint Lives of His Majesty and of His said Royal Highness; for making Provision out of His Revenue for the Payment of any Debts that may be due from His Royal Highness; for promoting the Accumulation of Debts in future; and for regulating the Mode of Expending of the said Revenue: And Whereas His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales did, under the said Act, and in pursuance of the Powers therein contained, authorize the Payment of Five thousand Pounds made payable Quarterly by the said Act to Him or any Person authorized by Him, at the Request of the Exchequer, to Her Royal Highness the Princess of Wales; which Sum hath been received for Her Use: And Whereas His said Royal Highness did afterwards cause the further Annual Sum of Twelve thousand Pounds to be paid to Her Royal Highness; which Sum Her Royal Highness also continued to receive: until the Arrangement hereinafter mentioned: And Whereas it was, in the Year One thousand eight hundred and nine, represented to His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, that the Debts of Her said Royal Highness amounted to the Sum of Forty one thousand Pounds; and His said Royal Highness did most graciously propose to take upon Himself the Arrangement of the said Debts of Her Royal Highness to that Amount, although under no legal Obligation to pay these Debts: And Whereas His Royal Highness was also graciously pleased to propose to recede the Income of Her Royal Highness to the Sum of Seventeen thousand Pounds Net, by adding the Sum of Five thousand Pounds to the said Sum of Twelve thousand Pounds, amounting in the whole, with the first before mentioned Sum of Five thousand Pounds per Annum, received by Her Royal Highness at the Exchequer, to the Sum of Twenty-two thousand Pounds: And Whereas, with a View to secure Regularity in the Expenditure of Her Royal Highness, and that all the Demands upon Her Royal Highness's Income might be administered in such manner as might be necessary to answer the intended Objects which His Royal Highness had in view of being Justice done to the Creditors of Her Royal Highness, without bringing any increased Charge upon the Public; and that His said Royal Highness should obtain a Security against any future Demands on account of any Debts of Her said Royal Highness, it was proposed that Her said Royal Highness should, by a Writing under Her Hand, appoint an Officer of Her own to receive the Income proposed to be paid upon Her Royal Highness, by His said Royal Highness, from the Transfer of His Royal Highness, and that Her Royal Highness's Officer should receive Instructions by that Appointment, to settle the Course of Payments in like manner, and on like time, as the Payments on behalf of His Royal Highness are directed to be settled by the said recited Act of the Thirty-fifth Year of His Majesty's Reign: And Whereas it was in such Proposal, and the Acceptance thereof understood, that the Arrangement, if carried into Effect, was a final Arrangement as to the Income which His Royal Highness was thereafter to allow to Her Royal Highness; and it was further agreed and understood, that a Document to such Purport should be signed by His Royal Highness as making the Proposal, and by Her Royal Highness as assenting to and concurring with all the Parts of it; which Document was so signed accordingly: And Whereas His Majesty, having been made acquainted with the said Proposal, for the Purpose of having His Majesty's Pleasure thereon, as the Father of His Family, did by a Writing, signed by His Majesty, and with His Majesty's Approbation, placed in the Hands of His Royal Highness, signify that His Majesty thought it reasonable that it should be fully understood, and that His Majesty did so understand it, that it would be contrary to what His Royal Highness reasonably and justly made so indispensable a Condition, and contrary to the explicit and essential Faith of the Transaction, that His Royal Highness's regular Payment of the Seventeen thousand Pounds per Annum, being continued, should remain liable in any way for the future to the Debts of Her Royal Highness, His Royal Highness having thereby undertaken, when thus secured by His Majesty's Approbation, to settle the Debts of Her Royal Highness to the Amount of the Sum of Forty one thousand Pounds and Eight thousand Pounds, making so all Forty nine thousand Pounds, and to receive Her Royal Highness's Income to the Net Sum of Seventeen thousand Pounds: And Whereas His Royal Highness did, in pursuance of such Arrangement, take upon Himself the Payment of the said Debts, amounting to the said Sum of Forty one thousand Pounds in the whole, and pay, or make due Provision for the Payment thereof; and the same have been since fully discharged, and are wholly paid and satisfied: And Whereas His said Royal Highness did, by Warrant under His Privy Seal, give at Carlton Place on the Twentieth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and nine, order and direct the Payment of such Annual Sum of Seventeen thousand Pounds out of the Monies payable to the Use of His Royal Highness at His Majesty's Exchequer, by Quarterly Payments, to the Person who should be appointed by Her Royal Highness to receive the same; which Sum has ever since been regularly and punctually paid: And Whereas it is deemed proper that His Majesty should be enabled to make an Addition to the Income of Her Royal Highness of Thirteen thousand Pounds annually,

* making the Annual Income of Her Royal Highness by such Addition, amount in the whole to the Annual Sum of Thirty five thousand Pounds: And Whereas it is expedient that His Majesty should for such Purpose be enabled to grant One Annual Sum of Thirty five thousand Pounds, to be in lieu of the Five thousand Pounds and Seventeen thousand Pounds, now received by or for and on behalf of Her Royal Highness by the Authority of His Royal Highness, out of the Sums payable to His Royal Highness at the Exchequer; and that such Thirty five thousand Pounds should be made payable to Her Royal Highness at the Receipt of the Exchequer, in Quarterly Sums, to the Use of Her Royal Highness, during the joint Lives of His Majesty and of Her Royal Highness; And Whereas it is, under such circumstances as are above recited, just and reasonable and proper, that His Royal Highness should be fully indemnified and discharged from and against all Demands and Debts which may here be or may hereafter be incurred by Her Royal Highness: We Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of the United Kingdom in Parliament assembled, do most humbly beseech Your Majesty, that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful to and for His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the Name and on behalf of The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by any Letters Patent under the Great Seal of Great Britain, to give and grant to Her said Royal Highness the Princess of Wales, One Annuity of Thirty five thousand Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain, which Annuity of Thirty five thousand Pounds shall commence and take Effect from the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, and continue from thenceforth for and during the joint Lives of His Majesty and of Her said Royal Highness, and shall be paid and payable at the Five most usual Days of Payment in the Year; that is to say, the Tenth Day of October, the Fifth Day of January, the Fifth Day of April and the Fifth Day of July in every Year, by even and equal Portions; the First Quarterly Payment thereof to be made on the Day after the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and fourteen; and that the said Annuity of Thirty five thousand Pounds shall and may, by such Letters Patent, be directed to be issuing and payable out of the Consolidated Fund, during the joint Lives of His Majesty and of Her said Royal Highness, after paying, or referring sufficient to pay, all such Sums as shall have been directed to be paid out of the same by any Act or Acts of Parliament made previous to the time of passing this Act, and with a Preference to all other Payments which shall or may at any time or times after the passing of this Act be charged upon and payable out of the said Fund.

II. And be it further enacted, That the said Annuity of Thirty five thousand Pounds shall be paid and payable at the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer; and the Auditor of the said Receipt shall, and he is hereby required by virtue of such Letters Patent, to make forth and pay Debentures from time to time for paying according to the Directions of this Act the said Annuity, as the same shall become due and payable, without any Fees or Charges to be demanded or taken for paying the same, or any Part thereof; and the said Debentures, to be made forth and paid as aforesaid, shall be a sufficient Authority to the several and respective Officers of the Receipt of the Exchequer, now and for the time being, for the Payment of the said Annuity according to the Directions of the said Act, without any further or other Warrant to be had for, had or obtained in that behalf.

III. And be it further enacted, That the said Annuity of Thirty five thousand Pounds, and every Part thereof, shall be free and clear from the Duty imposed by an Act of the Forty sixth Year of His present Majesty for granting a Contribution on the Profits arising from Property, Professions, Trades and Offices, and from all other Taxes, Rates and Assessments, and all other Charges whatsoever, imposed or to be imposed by Authority of Parliament or otherwise hereafter.

IV. And be it further enacted, That upon and from and after the Commencement of the Payment to Her Royal Highness at the Exchequer, of the said Annuity of Thirty five thousand Pounds, the said Annual Sums of Five thousand Pounds and Seventeen thousand Pounds respectively, heretofore payable and paid as aforesaid to Her Royal Highness under the Authority of His Royal Highness, shall be no longer payable or paid to Her Royal Highness; and all Warrants for such Payments or Disbursements thereof made by His Royal Highness for the Payment of such Sums respectively, so or for the Use or Benefit of Her Royal Highness, shall become and be wholly void; and from thenceforth such several Sums of Five thousand Pounds and Seventeen thousand Pounds respectively, shall, during the Continuance of the said Annuity of Thirty five thousand Pounds to Her Royal Highness, be referred at the Exchequer out of the Sums payable at the Exchequer to His Royal Highness, and be charged to and made Part of the Consolidated Fund of Great Britain.

V. And be it further enacted, That His Royal Highness the Prince Regent is hereby declared to be, and shall be, and is by this Act freed and fully indemnified against, and wholly discharged from all Debts, Claims and Demands, which may hereafter be incurred by, or may in any manner here arise, or may hereafter arise out of any Expence of Her said Royal Highness; and every Action or Suit or Proceeding against His Royal Highness, or against any Commissioner or Officer of His Royal Highness, or affecting any Revenues of His Royal Highness, so or in respect of any such Debt, Claim or Demand, shall be and is hereby declared to be wholly null and void to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

VI. And Whereas an Act passed in the Thirty fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for the better enabling His Majesty to make Provision for a sure and certain Annuity for Her Royal Highness the Princess of Wales, for the Term of Her Life: And Whereas no Letters Patent for granting any Annuity under the said Act have been granted by His Majesty: Be it therefore enacted, That the Annuity of Thirty five thousand Pounds, when granted and issued to Her Royal Highness under this Act,

C A P. CLXVIII.

An Act to amend the Laws respecting the Attestation of Instruments of Appointment and Revocation, made in exercise of certain Powers in Deeds, Wills and other Instruments. [20th July 1814.]

WHEREAS Powers, Authorities and Trusts are in many cases required to be executed by Deeds or Instruments signed by or under the Hands of the Persons creating the same, or Persons conveying to or directing Acts respecting such Powers, Authorities and Trusts are frequently required to signify such Consent or Direction by Deeds or Instruments signed by them, or under their Hands, and it has been the ordinary Practice, in the Memorandum of Attestation of Deeds, to express the Facts of Sealing and Delivery only: And Whereas Doubts have arisen respecting the Validity of Deeds or Instruments in which and requiring Signature, although the same may have been solemnly signed by the Persons whose Signature is required

* required thereof, and the Titles of many Purchasers, and of other Parties claiming under such Instruments
 * may be definitive for want of the Infusion of the Word "Signed," or some Word to that Effect, in the * Memorandum of Attestation thereof: And Whereas it is expedient that the Titles of Purchasers and other * Parties should not be disturbed, merely on account of the Omission to express the Fact of Signature in the * Memorandum of Attestation of any such Deed or other Instrument already made: May it therefore please * Your Majesty, that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the * Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and
 * by the Authority of the same, That every Deed or other Instrument, already made with the Intention to create
 * any Power, Authority or Trust, or to signify the Consent or Direction of any Person whose Consent or Direction
 * may be necessary to be signified, shall (if duly signed and executed and in other respects duly attested) be from * the Date thereof, and so as to establish derivative Titles, if any, of the same Validity and Effect, and no other, as * Law and as Equity, and privable in like manner, as if a Memorandum of Attestation of Signature, or being * under Hand, had been subscribed by the Witness or Witnesses thereof; and the Attestation of the Witness
 * or Witnesses thereof, expending the Fact of Signing, or of Signing and Delivery, without expending the Fact * of Signing or any other Form of Attestation, shall not exclude the Proof or the Presumption of Signature.

To what Deeds
 Act extended.

II. And be it enacted, That this Act shall extend and be construed to extend to all Deeds and other Instruments already made in Exercise of Powers, Authorities and Trusts, of Sale, Exchange, Partition, Selection, Nomination, Discretion, Leasing, Jointuring, making Portions, and other Charges, and for appointing new Trustees and other Powers, Authorities and Trusts whatsoever, or made for evidencing Affidavits, Consents, Requests, Directions, or any other like circumstance in reference to the Execution of any such Powers, Authorities or Trusts.

 has been avoided by Entry or Claim, or by Suit at Law or in Equity, or by any other legal or equitable means whatsoever; nor shall this Act affect or prejudice any Suit at Law or in Equity, now depending, for avoiding any Deed or other Instrument of Appointment, Reversion or Affirmance.

Appointments,
 &c. not affected.

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Person who has made any such Entry or Claim, or who has brought any such Suit, or has defended any Suit, for the Purpose of avoiding any such Appointment, Reversion or other Affirmance, should within the Benefit of the same Entry, Claim, Suit or Defence, within Six Calendar Months next after the palling of this Act, then such Entry or Claim, or Suit or Defence, shall not prejudice or avoid any such Appointment, Reversion or other Affirmance, but every such Appointment, Reversion or other Affirmance shall be and remain in force under this Act as if no such Entry or Claim had been made, or Suit brought or defended.

No Instruments,

pleable and not hereby altered: Provided always, that none of the said Duties shall be let to Farm for any longer Term or Time, than until the Thirty first Day of January inclusive, which will be in the Year One thousand eight hundred and eighteen.

II. And be it further enacted, That all the Powers, Privileges, Clerical, Regulations and Directions contained in and prescribed by the said Act of the Twenty seventh Year of His Majesty's Reign, shall be deemed and taken to be in full Force and Effect, with respect to the said Duties hereby allowed to be let to Farm and to the letting of the same and to the Farmers thereof, and to all other Persons, Mares and Things relating thereto, as far as the same are or shall be applicable and not altered by or repugnant to the express Provisions of this Act, as fully and effectually as if the same had been herein repeated and specially enacted with reference to the said Duties hereby allowed to be farmed.

III. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three or more of them, or the said Commissioners of the Stamp Duties authorized as aforesaid, to prescribe the time for making a Deposit of a Rem of Money and the Amount thereof, on account of the Rent to be paid by the Person who shall be the best Bidder for and be declared the Farmer of any of the said Duties hereby allowed to be farmed; and as also any such Person shall fail to make such Deposit at the time prescribed, or shall fail to execute a proper Contract in Writing and to give Security for the Payment of the Rent and the due Performance of such Contract in the manner directed by the said Act of the Twenty seventh Year of His Majesty's Reign within the time to be appointed for that Purpose, then and in every such case it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three or more of them, or the said Commissioners of the Stamp Duties authorized as aforesaid, to declare the Bidding and Contract of such Person null and void, and his Deposit, if made, forfeited, and to cause the Duties whereof he shall have been declared the Farmer to be again put up to be let to Farm, pursuant to the Directions of this and the said Act of the Twenty seventh Year of His Majesty's Reign, and as from time to time as often as such Failure shall be made.

V. And Whereas Duties have arisen whether the said Duties granted by the said Act of the Forty fourth Year of His Majesty's Reign, do attach upon Horses hired for drawing Fish Carts or Carriages, and it is expedient to remove such Duties from and after the Expiration of the period of the said Statute, Be it therefore further enacted and declared, That, from and after the Thirty first Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, the said Duties shall not be deemed to attach upon, or be payable for or in respect of any Horses, Mares or Geldings, which shall be hired for drawing any Carts or Carriages kept or usually employed for the Conveyance of Fish; but this is not to prejudice any Question in the mean time between the poorest Farmers of the said Duties and any Persons who shall have let any Horses, Mares or Geldings, to Hire for that Purpose.

C A P. CLXXXI.

An Act to render more easy and effectual Redress for Assaults in Ireland.

[30th July 1814.]

WHEREAS it would conduce greatly to the Maintenance of Peace and good Order in Ireland, if the several Modes of obtaining Redress for Assaults were more easy and less expensive to the Prosecutors on Indictments, and to the Plaintiffs in Actions, for such Injuries: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, in all cases in which, as the Law now stands, an Action may be brought in any of His Majesty's Superior Courts in Dublin, for any Assault, whether with Battery and Wounding, or either of them, or not, if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall think proper to lay the Damages at the Sum of Five Guineas or any less Sum, then and in every such case it shall and may be lawful to and for each Plaintiff or Plaintiffs to proceed for the Recovery of such Damages by Civil Bill before the Assistant Barrister at the Quarter Sessions for the County where the Fact shall be committed, or other Judge or Court having Jurisdiction to try Actions by Civil Bill, and within whose Jurisdiction the Fact shall have been committed, save and except Assize Courts; and the Judge of such Court shall have full Power to hold Plea thereof, and the same shall and may be proceeded on in like manner, on all respects, and the like Decree or Judgment and Execution shall and may be had thereon, and also the like Benefit of Appeal, and of Proceedings, Judgment and Execution thereon, as in case of any other Demand to the same Amount may now by Law be had or used in such Courts.

II. And be it enacted, That the Judgment or Decree on such Civil Bill or Appeal shall and may be pleaded or otherwise relied on as a Bar to any other Proceedings for or by reason of such Assault, or any Consequence arising therefrom, in the same manner, in all respects, as a Judgment to the same Effect in any of His Majesty's said Superior Courts could or might be pleaded or relied on, and so forth.

III. And be it enacted, That whenever any Person or Persons shall be committed in Ireland on any Indictment for an Assault, whether with or without Battery and Wounding, or either of them, the Judge or Court before where or in which such Conviction shall be had, over and above and in Addition to the Judgment which he or they shall think properly adapted to such Offence, shall, if such Judge or Court shall in his or their Discretion think fit, so to do, order and adjudge that the Amount of the Costs and Expenses of the Prosecution, and such Allowance for the Loss of time of the Person in attendance thereon, as shall be deemed reasonable to be determined by Assessors, or by such Enquiry or Examination as the said Judge or Court shall think fit, be paid by the Defendant or Defendants to the Prosecutor or Prosecutors; and such Judge or Court shall in such case, also order and adjudge, that such Defendant or Defendants be imprisoned for any time

And Whereas divers ill disposed and suspected Persons and reputed Thieves frequent the said River, and the Quays and Warehouses near and adjoining thereto, and the Avenues to the same Quays and Warehouses, and the Streets and Highways leading thereto, with Intent to commit Felony on the Persons and Property of His Majesty's Subjects there being; and although their evil Purposes are sufficiently manifested, the Power of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace to demand of their Sovereignty for their good Behaviour hath not been of sufficient Effect to prevent them from carrying their evil Purposes into Execution: Be it enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for any Constable or Surveyor appointed under the Authority of this Act, within the Limits aforesaid to apprehend every such Person, and convey him or them before any Justice of the Peace; and if it shall appear before the said Justice, upon the Oath of One or more credible Witnesses or Witness, that such Person or Persons is or are a Person or Persons of evil Fame and a reputed Thief or Thieves, and such Person or Persons shall not be able to give a satisfactory Account of himself or themselves, and of his or their way of living, and it shall also appear to the Satisfaction of the said Justice, that there is just Ground to believe that such Person or Persons was or were on or in the said River, Quays or Warehouses, or in such Avenue, Street or Highway as aforesaid, with such Intent as aforesaid, every such Person shall be deemed a Rogue and Vagabond within the Intent and Meaning of the Statute made in the Seventeenth Year of His late Majesty King George the Second, entitled An Act to amend and make more effectual the Laws relating to Rogues, Vagabonds and other idle and disorderly Persons, and to Houses of Correction.

XIV. And he it further enacted, That every such Commission shall be to the following Form of Words, as the case may happen, or in any other Form of Words to the like Effect:

BE it remembered, That on the Day of is the Year of our Lord
A. D. is brought before me C. D. Esquire, One of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, in and for the County of [or, City, Liberty or Place, as the case may be], and charged before me the said Justice with being a Rogue and Vagabond, he the said A. B. having been apprehended on the Day of is the said County [or, City, as the case may be], and it appearing to me the said Justice on the Oath of a credible Witness, that the said A. B. is a Person of evil Fame, and a reputed Thief, and the said A. B. on his Examination before me not being able to give a satisfactory Account of himself, or of his way of living, and it also appearing to the Satisfaction of me the said Justice, that there is just Ground to believe the said A. B. was aforesaid, with Intent to commit Felony on the Person or Property of His Majesty's Subjects there being, I do therefore, in pursuance of an Act passed in the Fifty fourth Year of the Reign of King George the Third, entitled [here repeat the Title of this Act], commit him the said A. B. of the said County, and adjudge him to be a Rogue and Vagabond within the Intent and Meaning of the Statute made in the Seventeenth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, entitled An Act to amend and make more effectual the Laws relating to Rogues, Vagabonds and other idle and disorderly Persons, and to Houses of Correction, and that he for his said Offence be committed to the House of Correction for the said County, until the next General or Quarter [as the case may be] Session of the Peace to be holden for the said County, City or Place [as the case may be], then and there to be further dealt.

And that such Conviction shall be good and effectual in Law to all Intents and Purposes, and shall not be quashed or set aside, or adjudged void or insufficient for want of any other Form or Words whatsoever, nor shall the same be removed by Certiorari into His Majesty's Court of King's Bench.

XV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Person shall think himself aggrieved by the Judgment of such Justice as aforesaid, such Person may appeal to the Justices of the Peace at the next General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be held for the County or Place wherein the Cause of Complaint shall have arisen, such Person at the time of his Conviction entering into a Recognizance with Two sufficient Sureties conditioned personally to appear at the said Sessions to try such Appeal and to abide the further Judgment of the Justices at such Sessions aforesaid; and in case such Conviction shall be affirmed at such Sessions, the said Justices may adjudge such Person to be a Rogue and Vagabond, and to proceed against such Person in the same manner as they might have done if such Rogue and Vagabond had been committed to the House of Correction and such General or Quarter Sessions; and in case such Person shall not appear pursuant to the said Recognizance, the Person so convicted by such Justice shall be deemed as incorrigible Rogue within the latest and Meaning of an Act made and passed in the Seventeenth Year of His late Majesty's King, intitled An Act to amend and make more effectual the Laws relating to Rogues, Vagabonds and other idle and disorderly Persons, and to Houses of Correction; and the said Justices at such Sessions, or any Two of them, shall issue their Warrant to apprehend and commit the Person so deemed as incorrigible Rogue to some House of Correction, or Common Gaol within their Jurisdiction, there to remain until the next General or Quarter Sessions for the said County (Liberty or City, as the case may be), then and there to be further dealt with according to Law: Provided always, that no Person convicted under this Act shall be deemed subject or liable to Punishment by Whipping.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall wilfully destroy or damage, or endeavour to destroy or damage, or be wilfully concerned in destroying or damaging, or endeavouring to destroy or damage any Boat or Boats then belonging to or hired or employed by or by Authority of the said Justice, or any Part of the Sails, Oars or other Tackle, Boats, Goods or Furniture contained in or belonging to any such Boat, every Person so offending shall forfeit and pay for every such Boat so destroyed or damaged or attempted to be destroyed or damaged, or of which any of the Tackle or other Contents shall have been so destroyed or damaged, or attempted to be destroyed or damaged as aforesaid, any Sum not exceeding Thirty Pounds, or shall suffer Imprisonment for any time not exceeding Three Months over and above any such Damages, as may be recoverable by Action at Law against any such Offender.

XVII. And Whereas for the Purpose of increasing the Facility of Depredation, it hath been a common Practice amongst various Classes of Persons concerned in the landing and warehousing of Merchandise on board Ships and Vessels in the said River, wilfully to injure and promote the opening and breaking of Casks, Bags and other Packages, and the spilling of their Contents: For Remedy thereof, be it further enacted, That if any Person employed in the landing or warehousing of any Goods and Merchandise, or any other Person, shall wilfully or through culpable Negligence or Carelessness, cause or suffer, or be concerned in causing or suffering to be broken, bruised, pierced, stained, cut, torn or otherwise injured, any Cask, Box, Chest, Bag or other Package containing or being designed and prepared for containing any such Goods or Merchandise while on board of any Barge, Lighter or other Craft lying or being in the said River, or any Quay, Wharf or Landing Place adjacent to the same, or in or on the Way to or from any Warehouse to or from which such Package shall have been removed, removing or about to be removed, with Intent that the Contents of such Package or any Part thereof may be spilled or dropped from such Package, then and in such case every Person so offending shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings, not less than Ten Shillings, and shall, on Conviction before any One or more Justice or Justices of the Peace, be committed for any Term not exceeding One Calendar Month, determinable upon the Payment of such Penalty he is obliged.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That if for the Purpose of preventing the Seizure or Discovery of any Materials, Furniture, Stores or Merchandise belonging to or having been Part of the Cargo of any Ship or Vessel lying in the said River, or of any other Articles unlawfully obtained from any such Ship or Vessel, any such or any other Article or Articles shall be wilfully let fall, or thrown into the River, or in any other manner directly or purposely conveyed away or endeavouring to be conveyed away from any Ship or Vessel, Boat, Barge, Lighter, Craft, Wharf, Quay or other Landing Place, every Person being Party or Accessory to such letting fall, throwing or Conveyance, or to any previous Instructions or premeditated Design to let fall, throw or convey away any such Article or Articles with any such Purpose as aforesaid, shall be deemed and adjudged guilty of a Misdemeanor; and if any Article or Articles whatever of apparent Value shall be wilfully let fall, thrown, conveyed away or endeavouring to be conveyed away from any Ship or Vessel into any Boat, Barge, Lighter or Craft, or from any Boat, Barge, Lighter or Craft, or from any Wharf, Quay or other Landing Place, without the Order, Assent or Frivty of the Person or Persons being the Owner, or having the lawful Charge of such Article or Articles, then and in such case, it shall and may be lawful to and for any such Constable or Surveyor, or as aforesaid, or for any Constable of the City of London within the Jurisdiction of the said City, to seize, apprehend and secure any such Boat, Barge, Lighter or other Craft, and every or any Person therein, or who by reason of his or her contacts to the Place where such Offence shall be committed, shall be reasonably suspected by such Constable or Surveyor of being Party or Accessory thereto, and forthwith to convey every such Person so apprehended before the said Justice, or some other Justice in whose Jurisdiction such Offences shall be committed; and if upon Examination it shall

And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for every such Thames Police Surveyor (subject to the Orders of the said Justices appointed as aforesaid), having just Cause to suspect that any Felony has been or is about to be committed on or on board of any Ship, Barge, Lighter, Boat or other Vessel lying or being in the said River, and within the Limits aforesaid, to enter at all times as well by Night as by Day, and upon every such Ship, Barge, Lighter, Boat or other Vessel, and thence to take all necessary Measures for the effectual Prevention or Detection of all Felonies which he has just Cause to suspect have been or are about to be committed in and upon the said River, and within the said Limits, and to apprehend and detain all Persons suspected to be concerned in the said Felonies, and also all Property so suspected to be feloniously stolen, and the same to produce before One or more Justice or Justices within his or their respective Jurisdictions; and every such Thames Police Surveyor is hereby authorized at any time between Sunrising and Sun-setting to enter any Ship or Vessel (except His Majesty's Ships) in the said River, and within the Limits in the said last recited Act mentioned, and to search the same for unlawful Quantities of Gunpowder, and also shall have the same Powers of Entry, removing to proper Places and detaining all such unlawful Quantities of Gunpowder found on board any such Ship or Vessel, and the Barrels in which such Gunpowder shall be, as are given to Persons searching for unlawful Quantities of Gunpowder under a Warrant of a Justice of the Peace, by virtue of an Act passed in the Twelfth Year of His present Majesty, XXVII. And Whereas in and by an Act passed in the Second Year of His present Majesty's Reign, entitled An Act to prevent the committing of Theft and Frauds by Persons navigating River Boats and other Boats upon the River Thames, it is, amongst other things, provided, that a Person or whole Possession Goods suspected of having been stolen or otherwise unlawfully come by are found, shall be adjudged guilty of a Misdemeanor, if he do not either give an Account to the Satisfaction of such Justice or Justices as are therein mentioned, how he came by the same, or else produce the Party or Parties from whom he brought or received the same, under which Provision on Receipt of stolen Goods who shall produce a Person of whom he received the same, can be adjudged guilty, although he shall not give such Account to the Satisfaction of such Justice or Justices as aforesaid. Be it further enacted, That in every case where the Production of the Party from whom any Goods or Things have been brought or received would at present be sufficient to exempt any Person from being adjudged guilty of a Misdemeanor under the said Act, by reason of any such Goods or Things being found in any way in his or her Possession, such Production shall not be deemed sufficient to exempt such Person from being adjudged guilty as aforesaid, unless the Account so given of the manner of his or her coming by such Goods or Things shall upon a full Investigation be satisfactory to such Justice or Justices; and if any Person so being so produced shall declare himself or herself to have bought, received or otherwise obtained such Goods of some other Person, such Justice or Justices are hereby authorized and required to examine every such other Person, and also every other prior Purchaser or pretended Purchaser; and if upon the whole of the Evidence it shall appear to the Satisfaction of such Justice or Justices, that the Party so accused bought or purchased said, at the time of his or her receiving such Goods or Things into his or her Possession, believe or had reasonable Cause to believe that the same were at any time and by any Person unlawfully come by or obtained, it shall and may be lawful to and for such Justice or Justices to adjudge such Party to be guilty of a Misdemeanor, and such Party so convicted shall thereupon suffer as heretofore mentioned.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted, That in every case in which Complaint shall be made or Information given of any Offence by this Act declared to be a Misdemeanor, or for which any pecuniary Penalty or Forfeiture is heretofore appointed with or without Imprisonment, in addition thereto or in lieu thereof, the Matter of such Complaint or Information, if the Offence shall have been committed or the Offender apprehended within the Limits aforesaid, shall or may be heard and determined, either by the said Justices to be appointed as aforesaid, or either of them, or by any other Justice or Justices sitting in and for the County or other Place of separate Jurisdiction within which the Offence shall have been committed or the Offender apprehended; and if any such Offence shall have been committed or the Offender apprehended within the Jurisdiction of the City of London, then the Matter of such Complaint or Information shall and may be heard and determined by the Lord Mayor, Recorder, or One of the Aldermen of the said City and not elsewhere; and every Conviction thereupon had, shall be certified, filed and entered in such manner as is directed in and by the said Act of the Second Year of His Majesty's Reign, with respect to Convictions under that Act, and may also be drawn up in such Form and Manner as is appointed in and by the said Act; and neither such Conviction, or any Proceeding previous thereto, shall be removed by Coramari or otherwise into any Court of Record, but such Convictions shall be final and conclusive to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That in any Parish, Township, Hamlet, Liberty, Precinct or Place, in the said County of Bedfordshire, where no Rate is or shall be made and collected for the Relief of the Poor, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Justices of the Peace for the said County, in their General Quarter Sessions assembled, to order and direct the Sum of Money which shall from time to time be assessed as or for the County Rate upon each Parish, Township, Hamlet, Liberty, Precinct or Place, to be rated and levied on the Inhabitant or Inhabitants, or Occupier or Occupiers of Lands therein, by such One or more Inhabitant or Inhabitants, or Occupier or Occupiers (to whom the Chief Constable of the Hundred or Division shall give the Notice hereinafter mentioned for Payment of such Rate), in such and the same manner as any Rate for the Relief of the Poor is by Law directed to be rated or levied; which Sum is rated and levied shall be paid by each One or more Inhabitant or Occupier, or Inhabitants or Occupiers, to the Chief Constable of the Hundred or Division wherein such Parish, Township, Hamlet, Liberty, Precinct or Place, doth lie, within the Space of Twenty one Days after Demand thereof made in Writing, to be given to each One or more Inhabitant or Inhabitants, or Occupier or Occupiers, or left at his, her or their Dwelling House or Houses, by the said Chief Constable of such Hundred or Division, which Demand the Chief Constable is hereby required to make at such times as the said Justices of the Peace shall by their Order in Sessions direct; and in case such One or more Inhabitant or Occupier, or Inhabitants or Occupiers, shall neglect or refuse to pay the Sum or Sums as assessed as or for a County Rate, after Demand made as aforesaid, such Chief Constable shall and is hereby empowered to levy the same by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of such One or more Inhabitant or Inhabitants, or Occupier or Occupiers, in default or neglecting to pay the same as aforesaid, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of Two or more Justices of the Peace for the said County of Bedfordshire, rendering the Overplus (if any) as Demanded, after deducting the Money assessed, and the Charges of of the Districts and Sals, to the Owner or Owners thereof; and if such One or more Inhabitant or Inhabitants, or Occupier or Occupiers, shall pay such Sum or Sums as aforesaid as or for a County Rate before the same shall be levied as aforesaid, be, or they, may afterwards rate and levy the same, or shall and may be allowed and re-imbursed the said Sum of Money by a Rate made or to be made upon all and every the Inhabitant or Inhabitants, or Occupier or Occupiers, of Lands within such Parish, Township, Hamlet, Liberty, Precinct or Place, which any Two or more Justices of the Peace for the said County shall order and direct, and shall be subject and liable to the same Powers and Remedies for the Recovery thereof by Districts and Sals, in case of Nonpayment, as are heretofore given to the Chief Constable.

X. And Whereas it may be inconvenient and expensive to many Parishes, Townships, Hamlets, Liberties, Precincts or Places, in the said County of Buckingham, that the Sum of Money which shall be allowed as or for the County Rate under this Act should be paid out of any Rate made for the Relief of the Poor of such Parish, Township, Hamlet, Liberty, Precinct or Place; Be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Justices of the Peace for the said County, at their General Quarter Sessions assembled, if they shall think convenient, to order the Sum of Money directed to be allowed as or for the County Rate on any Parish, Township, Hamlet, Liberty, Precinct or Place, to be paid by and levied on the Churchwardens, Overseers of the Poor or Petty Constables, or of or for any such Parish, Township, Hamlet, Liberty, Precinct or Place, and to be re-imbursed in such manner as the same is herein directed to be paid and levied in cases where no Rate is made for the Relief of the Poor; any thing herein contained, or any Law, Usage or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

X. And be it further enacted, That if the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor within any of such Parishes, Townships, Liberties, Precincts or Places, or any other Person or Persons shall think themselves, himself or herself aggrieved by any Act, Matter or Thing, to be done in pursuance of this Act, or the Powers hereby given, be, for or they shall and may appeal to the said Justices of the Peace for the said County at their General Quarter Sessions to be held for the said County, next after any such Cause of Complaint shall arise, upon giving Fourteen Days' Notice in Writing, stating the Cause of Complaint unto the Chief Constable of the Hundred or Division wherein such Complaint shall arise, which Justices are hereby empowered to hear and finally determine the same, and to give such Appellants or Appellant such Relief as in their Discretion shall appear fair and just.

XI. And be it further enacted, That in case of any Appeals, Actions, Suits or Proceedings at Law, as between Parish and Parish, or between any Person and Persons, or any Parish or Parishes, or any Person or Persons, respecting any thing done in pursuance of this Act, or any other Act or Acts relating to the County Rate, the Expenses of all such Appeals, Actions, Suits or Proceedings at Law, shall be borne and paid by such respective Parishes and Persons, or each of them and in such Proportions as the said Justices upon any Appeal in their General or Quarter Sessions shall award and order the same, or as such Courts wherein such Actions, Suits or Proceedings, shall be instituted, shall adjudge and order, and shall not be charged to or be paid out of the County Rate.

XII. And be it further enacted and declared, That all the Powers and Authorities in and by an Act passed in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, intitled An Act for the more easily settling, collecting and levying of County Rates, and also to much of another Act passed in the Thirteenth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, intitled An Act in various several Laws therein contained, for punishing such Persons as shall wilfully and unlawfully pull down or destroy Turnpikes, for repairing Highways or Lanes, or other Works, erected by Authority of Parliament, for making Rivers navigable; for preventing Excesses of the Occupiers of Lands and Waters upon the River of THAMES, Weymouth, and for establishing the Rates of Water Carriage upon the said River; for preventing frivolous and vexatious Suits; and for better securing the lawful Trade of His Majesty's Subjects to and from the East Indies, and for the more effectual preventing all His Majesty's Subjects trading (either under foreign Commissions) and for raising the due for fixing forth Writs of Certiorari upon Proceedings before Justices of the Peace, and for regulating the time and manner of applying for the same; for the better and more speedy Execution of Process within particular Parishes or Liberties; and for ratifying the Powers and Authorities of Justices of the Peace of Counties, touching County Rates, to the Justices of the Peace of such Liberties and Parishes as have Commissioners of the Peace within themselves, as relates to County Rates, shall be and continue in full Force and Effect (except where altered by this Act), with respect to the said County of Buckingham, and that all such Powers and Authorities shall be used and exercised in the Execution of this Act.

XIII. Provided always nevertheless, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to subject or render liable the Boroughs of Buckingham and Clipping Wycombe respectively, or either of them, to the Payment of any Sum or Sums towards any County Rate to be levied under the Authority of this Act, other than and except so far as the same Boroughs were subject or liable to before the passing of this Act; and then the Jurisdiction of the Justices of the Peace for the said several Boroughs of Buckingham and Clipping Wycombe respectively shall remain unimpaired and unmodified by this Act; any thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful to and for any Two Justices of the Peace in and for the County of Buckingham, being present at the General Quarter Sessions then assembled, or at any Adjournment thereof, to arrest and compel the Treasurer of the said County Stock to attend and produce his Accounts, with their Vouchers, for the Inspection of the said Justices and the Court.

XV. And be it further enacted, That the Treasurer of the said County of Buckingham shall be and he is hereby authorized and required to pay and discharge the Costs, Charges and Expenses, of obtaining this Act, and of making and collecting of the Returns of the said Clerks, Inspectors, Surveyors, Assessors, Chap-

Cap. cxi.

An Act for enabling the Justices of the Peace for the County of Kent to hold a General Session annually, or oftener, for levying and applying the Rates and Expenditure of the said County; and to alter and amend an Act made in the Forty sixth Year of His present Majesty, for regulating the Rates of the said County.

[17th June 1814.]

WHEREAS the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the County of Kent are holden at or near the City of Canterbury, in the Eastern Division of the said County, and at Maidstone, in the Western Division of the said County: And Whereas an Act was passed in the Forty sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, entitled *An Act for repealing such Part of an Act, passed in the Forty third Year of His present Majesty, as imposes a certain Proportion of the County Rate for the County of Kent upon the Eastern Division of the said County, and certain Proportions upon the Western Division of the said County; and also so much of an Act, passed in the Forty seventh Year of His present Majesty, for empowering the Justices of the Peace for the County of Kent to make a fair and equal County Rate for the said County, as directs the Churchwardens and Overseers therein mentioned to make certain Rates of the Rental or Value of Houses within their Parishes, at the Periods, and in the Manner therein mentioned, and impose a certain Penalty upon such Churchwardens and Overseers for making Default therein, and for allowing the Poor and Provisions of the said Act; by which said Act the Justices assembled at the Quarter Sessions for the Western Division of the said County, and the Justices assembled at the Quarter Sessions for the Eastern Division of the said County, are authorized and empowered to make such Rate or Assessment for raising such Sum and Sums of Money, within each Division respectively, as should be sufficient to answer the Excess and Purposes mentioned and contained in an Act of Parliament, passed in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of the late Majesty King George the Second, entitled *An Act for the more easy raising, collecting and levying of County Rates, in Occasions might demand, and the Emptiness of each Division might require: And Whereas it would tend greatly to improve the general Arrangement of the Business of the said County, if the Justices were empowered to meet in an annual General Session of the Peace at Maidstone, in the said County, for the Regulation and Transference of all public Business relating to the levying and applying the Rates and regulating the Expenditure of the County at large, and for other Purposes hereinafter mentioned; and it is therefore expedient that certain Parts of the said Act of the Forty sixth Year of His present Majesty should be repealed, and other Provisions and Regulations substituted in lieu thereof: And Whereas a new Gaol and House of Correction for the said County are now building at Maidstone, in the said County, and Court Houses for the public Business of the said County are intended to be built also at Maidstone, the Expense of which Gaol, House of Correction and Court Houses, will be considerable, and the whole of which Expense is, by the existing Laws now in force, borne and defrayed, exclusively, by the Occupiers of Lands and Tenements: And Whereas it is expedient that a certain Proportion of the Expense of erecting and completing such new Gaol, House of Correction and Court Houses, should be imposed upon the Proprietors of Lands and Hereditaments within the said County, in Aid and Discharge of the Burden now lawfully borne by the said Occupiers; but the several Purposes aforesaid cannot be effected without the Aid and Authority of Parliament: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the several Courts of General Quarter Sessions which have been heretofore held for each Division of the said County respectively, at or near Canterbury, and at Maidstone, shall continue to be holden at or near Canterbury and at Maidstone, for the Trial of all such Business as is not heretofore specially provided for and directed to be transacted at the General Session of the Peace hereinafter authorized to be held at Maidstone, in such and the same manner as heretofore, and with the same Powers and Authorities as if this Act had not been passed.

II. And be it further enacted, That on the Thursday next preceeding the Saint Thomas or Midsummer General Quarter Sessions in each and every Year, it shall and may be lawful for the Justices of the Peace for the said County of Kent, or any Three or more of them, and they are hereby respectively authorized and required to hold an Annual General Session of the Peace for the said County of Kent, at Maidstone, in the said County, for the Purposes hereinafter mentioned, and to adjourn the same from time to time as Occasion shall require.

III. And be it further enacted and declared, That all Marriages and Banns, lawfully and usually transacted and done by Justices of Peace for Counties, assembled at any Sessions of the Peace by virtue of or under any Acts of Parliament heretofore made, or which shall hereafter be made for or concerning the wedding, banns, wedding, solemnizing, enlarging, altering or removing any Gales, Houses of Correction or Court Houses belonging to the County at large, or for the Regulation and Government thereof, or for or concerning the wedding, banns, wedding, solemnizing, enlarging, altering or removing any County Bridges, or for or concerning any other Public Works of the County, and all Matters and Business relating to such Gales, Houses of Correction, Court Houses and County Bridges, and other such Public Works, and to the depriving the Excesses and Charges whereof the Rates and Assessments of the County at large are, or shall hereafter in any manner become by Law chargeable; And also all Matters and Business lawfully and usually transacted and done by Justices of the Peace for Counties, at any Sessions of the Peace holden for the same, in respect of the wedding, solemnizing and allowing of the Accounts of the Treasurers or Transfurers of the County, and all other Public Accounts relative to the County at large, the distress, appraising, apposing and removing, and paying of the County Turnpikes or Turnpikes, the Chaplains to County Gaols and Houses of Correction, the Keepers of such Gaols, Houses of Correction, and the Officers of such Court Houses as aforesaid, Surveyors of County Bridges, and all other Public Officers that now are or hereafter shall be in the Nomination of the Justices of the Peace for the County, and whose Salaries are or shall be payable out of the County Rates or Assessments, and also all other Matters and Business, lawfully and usually transacted and done by Justices of the Peace for Counties, at any Sessions of the same, in respect to the raising, laying and settling of any County Rates, or other Charges upon and for the same, or the raising, levying and collecting thereof, shall be heard, determined and carried into Execution in and for the said County, solely and exclusively at the said Annual General Session of the Peace so hereby authorized and appointed to be holden at Maidstone aforesaid, at the time aforesaid, or at some Adjournment thereof, and at no other Session, Place or Time whatsoever, save as hereinafter mentioned; any thing contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament, or any Law or Laws to the contrary notwithstanding.

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall authorize or empower the said Justices of the Peace, assembled at the said Annual General Session of the Peace hereby directed to be holden, or at any Adjournment thereof, to hear or determine any Appeal to be preferred by any Person or Persons against any Rate or Rates to be laid, ordered or assessed by the said Justices assembled at any such Annual General Session, but that all such Appeals shall be heard and determined by the Justices assembled at the General Courts of Quarter Sessions of the Peace held for the said County, or at any Adjournment thereof, in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

V. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Justices of the Peace for the said County, assembled at any such Annual General Session of the Peace, or at any Adjournment thereof, to nominate and appoint One or more proper Person or Persons to be the Treasurers or Transfurers for the whole of the said County, or for each Division thereof, and to fix and appoint such Salary or Salaries to be paid to such Person or Persons as they shall think reasonable; and every Person or Persons so appointed to be Treasurer or Transfurers for the said County of Kent, shall give Security for the due Execution of the Trust reposed in him or them.

VI. And Whereas the Amount of the Salaries now paid to the Chaplains to the Common Gaols and Houses of Correction of the said County, has been found to be inadequate to the Labour attending the Execution of the Duties required of them: And Whereas it would tend greatly to the Improvement of the Morals of the Prisoners confined in the said Gaols, if the said Chaplains resided therein, or had Apartments near thereto: Be it therefore further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Justices assembled at such Annual General Session as aforesaid, or at any Adjournment thereof, to fix and appoint such Salaries to be paid to such Chaplains, as to the said Justices in their said Session shall, from time to time, appear reasonable; and also to allow for such Chaplains or Chaplains, in the said Gaols, or in Buildings adjoining or near, such Apartments as to three shall from fit and proper for his or their Use, and further from time to time to alter and vary any such Allowances or Regulations to or concerning the same Chaplains, or any of them, in such manner as to the Justices assembled at any such Session shall seem proper.

VII. And be it further enacted and declared, That if any Emergency shall at any time hereafter arise, which may require fresh immediate Attention thereto, as may render the holding a Special Session in that behalf necessary, then and in such case the Clerk of the Peace for the said County, or his Deputy, shall, as soon as may be, upon the Order in Writing, under the Hands and Seals of any Three or more Justices of the Peace for the said County, to him for that Purpose given, wherein shall be expressed and contained the Nature and Purport of the Business intended to be brought forward at such Special Session, and the Day for holding such Session, under an Advertisement for the holding of the same, to be inserted Twice at the least, in some one of the several Public Newspapers, printed at Canterbury and Maidstone, if any such be there published and circulated, and if not, then Twice in like manner in the London Gazette, thereby notifying and declaring the Order of the said Justices: Provided always, that the time to be appointed shall not be within a less time than Fourteen Days, from the time of first publishing such Advertisement: Provided also, that such Special Session shall and may be lawfully holden accordingly for the due Dispatch and ordering of the Business to particularly notified as aforesaid, and as often, and the time shall and may be adjourned from time to time.

VIII. And Whereas the Expenses of the County of Kent have been regulated and delivered according to the Provisions of the said hereinbefore recited Act, passed in the Forty sixth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, and it is expedient that all Accounts should be settled and adjusted, and a Balance struck between the Two Divisions of the County, previous to the holding of the Full General Session of the Peace at Maidstone, under the Authority of this Act: Be it therefore further enacted, That the Comptroller of Justices appointed at the Quarter Sessions held at Maidstone, and at Sancti Sepulchri near Canterbury, in the Week next after the Clerk of the Essex last past, in pursuance of the said recited Act of the Forty sixth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, shall, and they are hereby required to meet at Stambridge, in the said County, within Ten Days next after the passing of this Act, for the Purpose of examining, passing, adjusting and allowing the several Accounts of the respective Treasurers of the said County, up to the Essex Quarter Sessions, One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, inclusive, and apportioning the gross Expense of the said County, fairly and equally between the Two Divisions, according to the Amount of their respective Rentals.

IX. And Whereas upon such Apportionment of the said Accounts, a Balance will be due from the Essex to the Wolfe Division of the County, which Balance will be the exclusive Property of the said Wolfe Division: And Whereas it is expedient that the said Balance should be thrown into the general Stock of the County, and that the said Essex Division should contribute a proportionate Sum to be estimated as the relative Rentals to the said general Stock: Be it therefore enacted, That the said Comptroller shall, at their Meeting at Stambridge be to holden as aforesaid, ascertain and declare the Amount of the said Balance, and the said proportionate Sum.

X. And Whereas the Amount of the aforesaid Balance and proportionate Sum are to be raised exclusively upon the Essex Division of the County: Be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Justices of the said Essex Division, assembled in Quarter Sessions at or near Canterbury, and they are hereby required and empowered to assess and levy a special Rate or Rates upon the said Essex Division exclusive of any Rate that may be granted by the General Session at Maidstone, for the Payment of the aforesaid Balance and proportionate Sum, and to pay the Amount of the said Rate or Rates at such times, and by such Installments, as to the said Justices shall seem fit, to the general County Stock: provided that the whole Amount of the said Sums as aforesaid, shall be paid to the said General County Stock within Three Years from the passing of this Act.

XI. And be it further enacted, That on the Second Tuesday after the Meeting of the said Committee at Stambridge, it shall be lawful for the Justices of the said County of Kent, and they are hereby authorized and required, to meet at Maidstone, in the said County, for the Purpose of holding the Full General Session for the said County, under the Authority of this Act.

XII. 1814. 5. c. xli. " WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Nineteenth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, entitled " An Act for the better raising and securing a Fund for a Provision for the Widows and Children of the " Ministers of the Church of Scotland, and of the Heads, Principals and Masters in the Universities of Saint " Andrews,

Andrews, Glasgow, Edinburgh and Aberdeen; and for repealing Two Acts, made in the Seventeenth and Twenty second Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, for those Purposes, it was, among other things, enacted, That the said Ministers, Heads, Principals and Masters, were to pay, out of their respective Stipends or Salaries at their Option, some one of the annual Rates following; that is to say, Two Pounds Twelve Shillings and Six pence, Three Pounds Eighteen Shillings and Nine pence, Five Pounds Five Shillings or Six Pounds Eleven Shillings and Three pence of lawful Money of Great Britain, to be applied for Payment of Life-ent Annuities to the respective Widows of such Ministers of the said Church, or of the Heads, Principals or Masters in the Universities aforesaid, amounting to Ten Pounds, Fifteen Pounds, Twenty Pounds or Twenty five Pounds of like Money, in Proportion to such of the aforesaid annual Rates respectively, as they should have chosen; and also to the making Provision respectively for the Children of the said Ministers, Heads, Principals and Masters amounting to the Sum of One hundred Pounds, One hundred and Fifty Pounds, Two Hundred Pounds or Two hundred and Fifty Pounds of like Money, and in the like Proportion; and it was further enacted, that the Excess or Surplus of the aforesaid annual Rate and of the Interest of the Capital which had already been accumulated pursuant to former Acts and other Statute payable by virtue of the aforesaid Act, after Payment of the Annual Expence of Management and of the Annuities to Widows and Provisions to Children, therein specified, should be laid out upon proper Security until the Capital of One hundred thousand Pounds, therein mentioned, should be made up and completed, when all further Accumulation should cease, and this Surplus be disposed of at the Option of the Contributors: And Whereas after the said Capital did attain the aforesaid Amount, the Contributors on being called upon in the manner directed by the said recited Act, to give an Opinion as to the future Disposal of the Surplus Revenue, did declare that it should be applied solely to the Benefit of the Widows of the Contributors: And Whereas from the increased Expence of Living and Decretals in the Value of Money, the Annuities and Provisions fixed by the said recited Act are found to be now totally inadequate to the Support of the Widows and Children of Ministers and Professors; and it has become expedient, for the Purpose of remedying this great and increasing Evil, and to prevent the Recurrence of a similar Urgency, to make certain Alterations in the said recited Act, and on the Annual Rates thereby made payable, which cannot be effected without the Aid and Authority of Parliament: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be so enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That every Minister who was possessed of a Benefice in the Church of Scotland, and every Person who was possessed of the Office of Head, Principal or Master in any of the Universities of Saint Andrews, Glasgow, Edinburgh and Aberdeen, on or before the Fifteenth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, and who as a Contributor to the said Fund is now subject to one or other of the annual Rates before specified, shall pay yearly an Addition of Twenty Pounds per Centum upon his perfect annual Rate; that is to say, instead of Two Pounds Twelve Shillings and Six pence, Three Pounds Eighteen Shillings and Nine pence, Five Pounds Five Shillings or Six Pounds Eleven Shillings and Three pence of lawful Money of Great Britain, as directed by the said recited Act, he shall hereafter pay according to the Rate to which he is already subjected, either Three Pounds Three Shillings, Four Pounds Fourteen Shillings and Six pence, Six Pounds Six Shillings or Seven Pounds Seventeen Shillings and Six pence of lawful Money of Great Britain; which increased annual Rate every such Minister, Head, Principal and Master, shall be bound, and he is hereby required to make Payment of, to the General Collector of the Fund established by the said recited Act, on or before the Term of Candlemas, or the Second Day of February One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, for the Year preceding Michaelmas One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, and shall continue to pay such increased Rate at each Term of Candlemas thereafter during his Life, notwithstanding he may have ceased, or shall hereafter cease to be a Member of the said Church, or a Head, Principal or Master in any of the said Universities, by Renunciation, Deprecation, or in any other way.

It. Provided always, and be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Minister who was possessed of a Benefice in the Church of Scotland, and for any Person who was possessed of the Office of Head, Principal or Master in any of the Universities, or who was subject to the Payment of one or other of the Annual Rates payable under the said recited Act, before the said Fifteenth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, and who has not already declared his Consent to the Encrease of the Annual Rates herein specially directed and provided, to decline according to the Payment of any increased Annual or other Rates by a Notice in the Form following:

Default of such Minister, or of such Minister, every such Minister of the Church of Scotland, and every such Head, Principal or Minister of the said Universities, shall be deemed and adjudged to be liable to the Payment of the several Rates and other Rates herein particularly specified, during all the Days of his Life: Provided always, that no Contributor who shall have resigned or shall have been deprived of his Benefice or Office before the Fifteenth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, shall be subjected to be liable to the Payment of any of the said Rates hereby made to the Annual or other Rates, unless such Contributor shall, by a Writing under his Hand, subscribed and delivered to the said General Collector on or before the Second Day of February One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, declare his Willingness and Desire to accede to the Payment thereof.

III. And be it enacted, That every such Minister, Head, Principal or Minister, as aforesaid, who has been admitted since the Fifteenth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, or who shall hereafter be admitted to a Benefice in the Church of Scotland, or to any of the said Offices in any of the Universities aforesaid, shall make his Election of one or other of the above mentioned several yearly Rates to which he chooses to be subject thereby during his Life, in the way and manner prescribed by the said recited Act; and every such respective Minister, Head, Principal or Minister as aforesaid, neglecting to give Notice of his Election in manner therein mentioned, shall be deemed and adjudged to have made his Election of the maximum Rate of Four Pounds Fourteen Shillings and Six pence, and shall be liable for the Payment of the said Rate accordingly during his Life.

IV. And be it enacted, That besides the Sums payable by the said recited Act of the Nineteenth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty by every Minister, Head, Principal, Minister or other Person as aforesaid respectively, on account of his Marriage, or of having attained the Age of Forty Years before his Admission, and who shall not desire anything himself to the increased annual Rates in manner before mentioned; or having ceased to have Right to his Benefice or Office before the Fifteenth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, who shall have signified his Willingness and Desire to be subject thereto, there shall be paid by every such Minister, Head, Principal, Minister or other Person as aforesaid, as Addition thereto at the Rate of Twenty Pounds per Centum on the Sums payable in the several cases before mentioned, as directed by the said last recited Act.

V. And Whereas in further Aid of the said Fund a great Majority of the Contribution thereto have moved into a Subscription to raise an additional Sum to be applied to the Purposes of this Act: And Whereas although some Part of the Sum so subscribed has been already paid to the Collector of the said Fund, the greater Proportion thereof is still unpaid, and it is of the utmost Importance to the Purposes of this Act that the Sums subscribed should be made good within a reasonable time: Be it enacted, That every Sum so subscribed which shall not have been paid to the said Collector in his Office as Collector on or before the Second Day of February One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, shall bear Interest from that Date at the Rate of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum; and every such Minister, Head, Principal, Minister or other Person, liable for the Payment of the sums so subscribed, shall thereafter be bound and obliged to make Payment of the lawful Interest of such Sums amounting unpaid, along with the Amount of his original Subscription.

VI. And be it enacted, That every Presbytery of the Church of Scotland, and each of the said Universities which shall not, previous to the passing of this Act, have made Returns of Lists of such of their Members as shall have joined in the said Subscription, and of the Sums subscribed by them respectively, certified and attested by the Moderators and Clerks of the Presbyteries, or Principals and Clerks of the Universities respectively, shall, on or before the First Day of February One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, or when such Presbyteries shall be within the said Western or Northern Isles, on or before the First Day of May One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, along with the Annual Lists required by the said recited Act of the Nineteenth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, transmit to the Clerk of the said Trustees such Lists so certified and attested under a Penalty of Ten Pounds Sterling, to be levied by the said Collector from the Moderators and Clerks of such Presbyteries, and from the Principals and Clerks of such Universities as shall have failed to transmit such certified and attested Lists within the time herebefore limited.

VII. And be it further enacted, That every Person who shall for the first time be admitted to a Benefice in the Church of Scotland, or to any Office in any of the said Universities after the Fifteenth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, shall be subject to pay to the Collector of the said Fund the Sum of Ten Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain, by way of Contribution, as being exactly the Average of the original Subscriptions before mentioned; which Sum of Ten Pounds shall be payable by Two equal Installments along with the Two First Payments of his Annual Rate, and shall bear Interest and be payable in the same manner as such Rates bear Interest and are payable.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That the aforesaid increased Annual Rates, and other Sums by the said recited Act or by this Act made payable by the present and future Heads, Principals and Ministers in the Universities aforesaid, and the aforesaid Sums already subscribed, or which may hereafter be subscribed as aforesaid by the said Members, Heads, Principals or Ministers in the said Church and Universities, shall be privileged Debts and preferable to all other Debts of the said Ministers, Heads, Principals and Ministers, not only upon their Benefices and Salaries respectively, but also on their whole other Personal Estate; any Law or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

IX. And be it enacted, That when any Parish in the Church of Scotland becomes vacant by the Death, Translation, Resignation or Deposition of an Incumbent holding the Pastoral Care and Benefice of such Parish, and that vacant Benefice thereby arises subsequent to the Crop and Year One thousand eight hundred and thirteen, such vacant Stipend, is to be as it has heretofore been applicable by the Patron to gross Parishes and vicarages, and in all time to come be levied in manner herebefore mentioned, and paid to the said General Collector, Indee, who is hereby authorised to levy and discharge the same by himself, his Deputies or Factors, and he is also hereby authorised and required to apply the Produce thereof to the Purposes of this Act, under the Direction of the Trustees appointed to manage the said Fund; any Law, Statute or Customs to the contrary notwithstanding.

X. And Whereas by an Act passed by the Parliament of Scotland, in the First Parliament of King William and Queen Mary, intituled An act to amend the several Stipends in Argyllshire; the several Stipends arising within the said Shire were withdrawn from the Patrons of the several Parishes, and made payable to the Synod of Argyre or their Factors to be applied by them to various Purposes specified in the said Act: And Whereas it is expedient that the whole vacant Stipends throughout Scotland should be applied and disposed of in one uniform manner: Be it therefore enacted, That when any Parish shall hereafter become vacant, within the said Shire of Argyre, by the Death, Translation, Resignation or Degradation of any Minister holding the Pastoral Care and Direction of the said Parish, and vacant Stipend shall thence arise which by the said last recited Act would be liable to be disposed of by the said Synod of Argyre: all such vacant Stipend shall in future be levied, paid and applied in the same manner and under the same Regulations as are herein prescribed with regard to vacant Stipends in every other Parish within Scotland, and that for the Crop and Year One thereof eight hundred and eighty-nine, and all succeeding Crops and Years; any thing in the said last recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding; but nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to extend to deprive the said Synod of Argyre of any Right they may have or claim by Law or Custom to dispose of the Rents of Manse and Glebe, or of the Sums paid in lieu of Manse, termed Manse Money, within the said Shire of Argyre.

XI. Provided always, and it is enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall affect or be construed to affect the Right which the Widow and next of Kin of a deceased Minister have by Law to our Half-year's Stipend in Name of Ave.

XII. And be it enacted, That in or after any Portion of vacant Stipend shall occur in any Parish within the Bounds of any Presbytery of the Church of Scotland, the Moderator of such Presbytery: hereby expressly required within Three Calendar Months, or if the Parish be situated within the said West or Northern Isles, within Six Calendar Months, after the Terms of Whitsunday or Michaelmas, at which such vacant Stipend shall become due, to make Intimation thereof by a Writing under his Hand to the General Collector of the said Fund at his Office in Edinburgh: which Writing shall also contain an attested List of the several Ministers, or others by whom such vacant Stipend is payable, and of the Proportion thereof payable by each of them, according to the best of the Knowledge and Belief of such Moderator, after having used all the means in his Power to procure Information: and such Moderator is also hereby required, within Three Calendar Months after such vacant Stipend shall become due, to give Intimation or Notice in Writing to the several Ministers and others by whom the same may be due, that they are required under the Authority of this Act to make Payment thereof to the said General Collector or his Deputies or Factor demanding the same, on or before the Fifth Day of May immediately following the Terms of Whitsunday or Michaelmas, at which it may have come due: and if the Moderator of any Presbytery shall in anywise neglect to make such Intimations in manner herebefore mentioned, such Moderator and the other Members of such Presbytery shall in that Event be liable, and they are hereby required to pay and make good to the said General Collector the whole of such vacant Stipend at their own Expence; but in such Event such Moderator and other Members of the Presbytery becoming liable for such Payment shall be entitled to levy, apply and receive such vacant Stipend from the respective Ministers and others by whom the same may be due, and to grant Receipts for the same, and shall have the same Remedies for Recovery thereof, as the said General Collector would have for Recovery of the same.

XIII. And Whereas there is as perfect an unappropriated Balance remaining in the Hands of the Treasurer of the Fund established under the Authority of the said recited Act of the Nineteenth Year of His present Majesty, to which certain Donations have been added: And Whereas certain Sums are made payable to the General Collector under an Act of the Fifteenth Year of His present Majesty, entitled An Act for a general and perpetual Stipend in certain Castles in Scotland: And Whereas a Sum of Money has been granted to the said Trustees out of the Bishop's Rents in Scotland: Be it therefore enacted, That the said unappropriated Balance, with the Amount of the Donations added thereto, the said Sums made payable to the Collector as aforesaid, under the said Act of the Fifteenth Year of His present Majesty is so far as they have been already recovered, or may hereafter be received, together with the Amount of the said Eleventh out of the Bishop's Rents, and including the Interest which has arisen or may hereafter arise from three several Sources, shall in all time coming be applicable to the Purposes of this present Act, to which the said Trustees are hereby authorised and required to apply them in manner hereafter mentioned.

XIV. And Whereas from the Capital Stock mentioned in the forementioned Act of the Nineteenth Year of His present Majesty was comprised, there has been a Yearly Surplus divided among the Widows, in virtue of the said Act, and added to the original Annuities provided to them, which Annual Surplus varies considerably in its Amount in different Years, whereby the Widows are left in uncertainty as to the Rate of the Income which they are to receive in any one Year: Be it therefore enacted, That at the stated Meeting of the said Trustees on the Third Twelfth of February One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, the said Trustees shall calculate and ascertain the Net Average of this Annual Surplus for a Term to be divided, which Average shall be paid upon as the Sum to be divided among the Number of Widows who may be then upon the Fund, and the Proportion of such Average Surplus which shall fall to each such Widow shall be paid upon as the Sum to be thereafter paid in each Year to each Widow who may be from time to time on the Fund according to the original Annuities provided to them under the said recited Act of the Nineteenth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty.

XV. And Whereas the Sum of Twenty Pounds per Cent was added by this present Act to the said Annuities payable under the Act of the Nineteenth Year of His present Majesty, with, by being levied along with the

"XVI. And Whereas from the great Number of Voluntary and Charitable Donations, among which it will have to be desired, the additional Income arising from the Funds above specified would fill it immediately diminished by very inadequate to the Attainment of the Objects which are in View; Be it therefore enacted, That the Amount of the Subscriptions heretofore mentioned with the Interest arising thereon, the Same to be received under the Authority of this Act as Contributions of Ten Pounds from Persons hereafter to be admitted as Benefactors or Officers, the several Produce of recent Stipends, the unappropriated Balance remaining in the Hands of the said Trustees inchoate, &c. such voluntary Donations as may have been added thereto, with the Accruals of Interest thereon, the Same made payable to the said General Collector under the said related Act of the Fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty in full, as their Same have been or may hereafter be received, the said Sum granted as a Donation out of the Bishop's Rents in Scotland, with the yearly Interest thereon, together with the yearly Produce of the several Estates as the heretofore Surplus beyond the Average heretofore directed to be calculated by the said Trustees on the Third Tenth of February One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, shall be set apart as a Capital Fund or Stock, of which the said Management shall be vested in the Trustees appointed by the aforesaid Act of the Nineteenth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, who are hereby authorized (with the Advice and Consent of the Lord President and the Two Senior Judges of the Court of Session, the Lord Chief Baron and the Senior Baron of the Court of Exchequer and of the Lord Justice General and Lord Justice Clerk of Scotland for the time being, or any Three of them), to invest the said several Sums of which this Capital Fund or Stock does or shall consist, as good Security, or as will be found in the Government Treasury or Exchequer, as they shall deem it best in the Adjustment of their Trusts

And be it further enacted, That the Interest, Dividends and Produce of such Capital Fund or Stock shall be added to the Principal, and accumulated for Six Years, from and after the Twenty second Day of November One thousand eight hundred and fourteen; and during this Term a separate Account shall be kept of the whole Produce of the said appropriated Balance with its Accumulations, of the first annual Estate arising as aforesaid from the Addition of Twenty Pounds per Centum upon the Original Rates, and of the Sum which may have been or may hereafter be received by the said Collector under the said recited Act of the Fifteenth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty; and the said Trustees, at their stated Meeting on the Third Twelfth of February One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, shall ascertain the total Amount of the Sums, Accumulations and Interest, of which each separate Account is to be kept up to the Second Day of February then current, and from that Period the whole annual Produce of such total Amount of the Sums, Accumulations and Interest, of which each separate Account is to be kept, together with the whole annual Amount of the Estate which shall thereafter arise in manner before mentioned from the said Addition of Twenty Pounds per Centum on the original Rates, under the Refundition and with the Exception hereinafter mentioned, shall on the Twenty fifth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, and thereafter annually, be distributed among the whole of the existing Widows, in Proportion to the Rates respectively claimed by their Husbands, and among the Orphan Children of deceased Contributions, in manner and under the Refunditions hereinafter mentioned; that it to say, in every case in which there shall be no Widow left by a deceased Contributor, but a Child or Children, of whom One or more shall be under the Age of Eighteen Years, at the time when the first Addition shall be made to the Annuities of Widows under this present Act, and whose Father shall have died after the Term of Whynsday One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, and after having subjected himself to the Payment of an increased annual Rate in Terms of this Act, such Child or Children shall receive each a Sum yearly at would have been the Amount of the Addition or Increase of Annuity, which would have been payable in consequence of this Act, to their Father's Widow if the said Father had survived her Husband; which yearly Allowance shall continue to be paid till the youngest or only Child shall have attained the Age of Eighteen Years complete, at the same Terms and under the same Rules as are directed as to the Payment of the increased Annuities to Widows under this present Act: Provided always, that no such Annuity, or any Part thereof, shall be payable to any only Child or Family of Children, after the youngest Child shall have attained the Age of Eighteen Years.

* XVIII. And Whereas the Estate Value contained will be liable to Variation in its Amount in different Years in the same way as the Original Surplus: Be it enacted, That the said Trustees at their Meeting on the Third Tuesday of February One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, shall calculate and ascertain the average Amount of the annual Produce of the Estate, arising from the said Addition of Twenty Pounds per Centum on the Original Rates during the Six preceding Years, which Average shall be fixed upon as the Sum to be divided among the Number of Widows and Families of Children who may then be upon the Fund; and the Proportion of such Average which shall fall to each such Widow or Family of Children, shall be fixed upon as the Sum to be thereafter paid to each Year to each Widow or Family of Children, which may from time to time be upon the Fund, out of this particular Branch of the Revenue: Provided always, that in making and calculating this Average, and all other Averages for similar Purposes under the Act, the same shall be, if necessary, so increased or diminished in the Opinion of the said Trustees, as that no Payment to any Widow or Family of Children shall include a fractional Part of a Pound Sterling; and when the Amount of the said Estate shall fall short of the Average so fixed, such Deficiency shall be made good out of the accumulations: First after reviewed, and that when there is an Overplus it shall be applied to the Purposes of such accumulating Fund.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That after the Produce of the annual Excess beyond the Average to be fixed in manner before mentioned on the Third Twelfth of February One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, and the accumulated Balance in the Hands of the said Trustees, and the Donations already added thereto shall have sufficed to form a Part of the aforesaid Capital Fund or Stock, in the manner heretofore directed, then the Money raised by Subscription among the Contributors, the Sums hereby appointed to be paid by several Incumbents, corresponding to the Average of the original Subscriptions, the Produce of the vacant Stipends, and the Sums which shall become due to the said Collector under the aforesaid Act of the Fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, from and after the Term of Michaelmas One thousand eight hundred and twenty, together with the before mentioned Donations out of the Bishop's Rents, shall continue to accumulate, with the Interest and Proceeds thereof, during a further Period of Six Years from the Twenty second Day of November One thousand eight hundred and twenty, at the End of which Period each certain yearly Sum as may be thought expedient by the said Trustees, but not in any Event exceeding Two Thirds of the annual free Revenue which shall then belong to the said Capital Fund or Stock, including in such Revenue the annual Produce of vacant Stipends, and other Faculties estimated according to a fair Average, shall again be set apart and added to the Annuities of Widows and Orphan Families; and such additional Annuities shall not be distributed with any Reference to the Amount of Rates, but shall be equally divided among all the Widows and Families, to whatever Class of Contributors their Husbands or Fathers may have belonged.

XX. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the Date when this Second Addition shall have been made to the Annuities of Widows and Orphan Families, the unappropriated Part of the said Capital Fund or Stock, and the Produce thereof, or Revenue belonging thereto, shall be allowed to accumulate during such a further Period of not less than Fourteen Years as the Trustees shall then judge expedient, when a certain additional yearly Sum out of this Fund shall again be set apart for the Benefit of the Widows and Orphan Families in manner before mentioned; which Sum shall be divided in the same Manner and under the same Regulations as are prescribed for the second Increase of Annuities under this Act; and in all cases thereafter, in such Intervals as the Trustees shall judge expedient (such Interval being not less than Fourteen Years), similar Additions, regulated exactly in the same manner, shall be made to the Annuities of Widows and Orphan Families; care being always had not to circumscribe too much the Operation of the said Capital Fund or Stock; it being the true Meaning and Intent of this Act that there shall always belong to such Capital Fund or Stock such a Share or Revenue as may admit from time to time of an Addition to the Annuities of the Widows and Orphan Families of Contributors in some Degree corresponding to what may be the increased Expense of Living, and to the consequent Exigencies of their Situation.

XXI. And be it enacted, That every Addition made to the Annuities of Widows or Orphan Families in consequence of this Act, shall be paid to them by the General Collector, at the same time and under the same Regulations as are at present in force for the Payment of Widows' Annuities under the Authority of the said recited Act of the Nineteenth Year of His present Majesty: Provided always, that it shall appear to the said Trustees at their stated Meeting on the Third Twelfth of May yearly that the Funds actually recovered under this recited Act, and then in the Hands of the Collector, are sufficient for the Payment of such Additions; but it is hereby expressly provided and declared, that the Collector shall not be bound to make good to the Widows and Children the Additions made to the said Annuities as aforesaid, beyond the Sums he shall have actually received, out of which such Additions are to arise, or from the Funds committed to the Charge of the said Trust, under this Act at the time of such Annual Meeting: on the Third Twelfth of May, it being always understood that such Collector shall be bound at the said stated Meeting in May, yearly, to exhibit an exact Account of the Funds from which such Additions should arise, so as to enable the said Trustees to settle precisely the actual Sums ready to be distributed; but if in any one Year the said Widows and Children shall receive a less Addition to their Annuities than is hereby appointed and intended for them through a Deficiency of Funds in the Hands of the Collector, such Deficiency shall be made up to them or their Representatives at the first subsequent Payment of Annuities under this Act, and their Claim in this respect shall then be preferable to the increased Annuities which shall then become payable.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That if any Member in the Church of Scotland, or any Head, Principal or Minister in the said United Societies, who was admitted to his Benefice or Office on or before the Fifthteenth Day of May of this present Year, shall, in consequence of the Power heretofore referred to him, refuse to accede to an Increase upon his annual Rates, or any Contributor who shall have craved to have Right to his Benefice or Office, shall not have signified his Willingness to accede to such Increase: in that Event neither the Widow nor the Children of such Minister, Head, Principal, Minister or Contributor, shall derive any Benefit from the Funds raised or appropriated by virtue of this present Act, beyond One Half the Amount of the Share hereby secured to other Widows or Families of Children under the first Distribution heretofore directed to be made, from and after the Twenty second Day of November One thousand eight hundred and twenty, to which Half they are hereby declared to be entitled, but they shall have no Claim to or Interest in any subsequent Addition to be made to the Annuities to Widows and Children.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That if any such Minister, Head, Principal or Minister as aforesaid, according to an Increase upon his annual Rates, shall decline to join in the Subscription heretofore mentioned, then the Widow and Children of such Minister, Head, Principal or Minister, shall be entitled only to share in the Benefit arising from the first Addition to be made to the Annuities of Widows and annual Proceeds to Children, in virtue of this Act, but shall have no Claim to or Interest whatsoever in any second or subsequent subsequent Addition to be made, either to the Annuities of Widows, or to the Annual Provisions to Children under this Act.

XXIV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any such Minister, Head, Principal, Master or Contributor as aforesaid, who shall have engaged to the Increase on his annual Rate herein already specified, at any time on or before the Second Day of February One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, to credit his Widow and Children to the full Benefit of this Act, by paying or by a Writing under his Hand and Seal to the said General Collector, on or before the Second Day of February One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, or of receipt within the Western or Northern Isles, on or before the First Day of May One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, obliging himself to pay to the said General Collector on the said Second Day of February One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, or if not then paid with legal Interest from that Time a Sum equal at least to the Average of the previous Subscriptions, within the Parishes, or University of which he is a Member, or if there shall have been no previous Subscriptions within such Parishes, a Sum equal at least to the Average of the previous Subscriptions in the Synod within the Bounds of which such Parish is situated.

XXV. And Whereas in the said recited Act of the Nineteenth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, it is enacted, that all incidental Expenses shall be paid by the General Collector, for which he is to be allowed to take Credit in his Accounts, provided the said Expenses do not in any One Year exceed the Sum of Sixty Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain; but this Sum having been found to be too limited, Be it therefore enacted, That the General Collector shall as heretofore be allowed to take Credit in his Account for the incidental Expenses incurred by the Trustees, including the Collector's Postage, provided these Expenses shall not in any One Year exceed the Sum of One hundred Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain.

XXVI. And Whereas in the Execution of the present Act very considerable additional Labour and Expense will necessarily fall on the General Collector of the Trustees, who has no Allowance for Expenses made to him whatever by the said recited Act of the Nineteenth Year of His present Majesty, and who can receive no Advantage or Emolument whatever from the Sums to be accounted under this Act, Be it therefore enacted, That the said General Collector shall be entitled, and he is hereby authorized to take Credit in his annual Account of the Fund to be created under this Act for the yearly Sum of Twenty Pounds to be paid to his Clerk, for his additional Labour in consequence of this Act, and also for the further Sum of Twenty five Pounds yearly to defray his own incidental Expenses, not including Postage of Letters, &c. which he is to have Credit in the annual Account of the Trustees in the Execution of the said recited Act of the Nineteenth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty.

XXVII. And Whereas a very considerable additional Labour will also be required on the Clerk of the said Trustees in the Execution of this Act, Be it enacted, That the said General Collector shall be entitled to take Credit in his annual Account, of the Fund to be created under this Act for the Sum of Twenty Pounds, to be paid from the said Fund to the said Clerk of the Trustees in Name of additional annual Salary.

XXVIII. And be it enacted, That in case the Sums heretofore allowed to the General Collector and to the Clerk of the Trustees shall hereafter appear to be inadequate, it shall in that Event be in the Power of the said Trustees, and they are hereby authorized to make such reasonable Additions thereto as they shall judge to be necessary, subject to the Consent and Approbation of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland.

XXIX. And be it enacted, That the full Expenses that shall be incurred by the said General Collector or Receiver, or his Deputies or Factors, in levying and recovering Payment of the respective Sums which shall become due and payable in virtue of this Act, or out of the Estates or Effects of the Persons applying or refusing to make regular Payment of the same as hereby authorized and required, shall be recovered out of their respective Estates without any Taxation, Abatement or Mitigation; any Law or Practice to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXX. And be it enacted, That all Actions and Processes competent to the said General Collector by the said recited Act of the Nineteenth Year of His present Majesty, for the Recovery of any Sums therein authorized to be levied and recovered by him, shall also be competent to him for the Recovery of all Sums of Money hereby authorized to be levied and recovered by him.

XXXI. And be it enacted, That the said General Collector shall be bound, and obliged as he is hereby expressly directed and required to lay before the said Trustees at their Meeting on the Fourth Tuesday of November yearly, an exact Account furnished by him of his whole Intromissions, with the Sums payable to him under the Authority of this Act for the Year immediately preceding the First Day of November then current, together with an exact List subscribed by him of the Arrears under this Act then remaining unpaid; but it is hereby expressly provided and declared, that the said General Collector shall not be bound to advance or to make good any Part of the said Arrears except the Twenty Pounds per Centum incorporated with the Original Rates, until he shall actually have recovered the same, but after having satisfied the said Trustees that he has used all proper Diligence, he shall be entitled to be actually discharged of his Intromissions.

XXXII. And it is hereby enacted and declared, That the said Trustees shall be and they are hereby directed and required to submit to the annual Report to the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, a General Statement of the Amount and Approbation of the Fund to be created under the Authority of this Act, at the Period of their last Settlement of the Collector's annual Account.

XXXIII. And be it enacted, That all and every the Powers and Authorities, Privileges, Clauses, Matters and Things, in the said recited Act of the Nineteenth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty contained, shall be and continue to full Force and Effect, in regard to the Rates and Debt hereby authorized by this Act to be levied and paid, and the levying, recovering and applying of the same, except in so far as the same are hereby repealed or expressly altered, or are inconsistent with or repugnant to this present Act.

XXXIV. And

XXXIV. And be it enacted, That the Expense of procuring and passing this Act shall be paid by the said General Collector out of the first and residue of the Funds to be created under this Act, at the Discretion and by the Direction of the said Trustees, who are hereby authorized to give him Credit for the same, at the First Closure of his Accounts after the passing of the said Act.

Expense of Act
here paid.

XXXV. And be it enacted, That this Act shall be deemed and taken to be a Public Act, and shall be judiciously taken Notice of as such by all Judges, Justices and others, without being specially pleaded.

Cord, and sold to Bakers or other Persons making Bread for Sale, as near as possible according to the Table annexed to this present Act; and that the Assize of Bread which shall be so respectively set, shall take place upon and from the Monday next ensuing, and be in force for the said City and County of the City of Cord, and the Suburbs and Liberties thereof, until a new or other Assize of Bread shall be set by the said Mayor; and that after the fixing or setting of every such Assize of Bread by the said Mayor, the Assize so from time to time fixed or set, shall with all convenient Speed after the fixing or setting thereof, be made public in such manner as the said Mayor shall order or direct.

Assize and Price of Bread to be according to Table annexed.

XXXI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That from time to time, when and so often as the said Mayor shall fit the Assize of Bread in Execution of this Act, the Assize and Weight of the Bread to which such Assize shall relate, and the Prices to be paid for the same respectively, shall be set and ascertained according to the Table annexed to this Act, and according as the Price of the Quarrer and Bafel of Wheat, or the Price of the Hundred Weight and Sack of Flour may be: Provided also, that in fixing and ascertaining the same, the said Mayor shall duly observe the Proportions contained in the Table hereto annexed, as near as can be, whenever the Price of Corn or Flour may be.

Assize of One
Peony, Two Peony and Three Peony
Loaves.

XXXII. And be it further enacted, That the said Mayor shall from time to time have Power, and he is hereby required to strike the Assize of Bread made under this Act, when such Bread shall not weigh One Eighth Part of a Peck Loaf (being One Peony, Two Peony and Three Peony Loaves), the Weight whereof is to be respectively ascertained according to the Table hereto annexed, respect being had to the Prices of Wheat or Flour as aforesaid.

XXXIII. And Whereas in fixing or setting the Assize of Bread in conformity to the Directions of this Act, it may frequently happen that the Average Price of Wheat or of Flour may not agree with any of the Prices specified in the Table annexed to this Act, from which the Assize of Bread is directed to be set, and the Assize must then be fixed or set from the Price in the said Table nearest to the said Average Price returned; by reason whereof the Assize and Price of Bread may be at times higher than by this Act is intended, to the Injury of the Public, and at other times not so high, to the Injury of the Bakers: For Remedy whereof, be it enacted, That whenever there shall be any Difference between the actual Average Price of Wheat or of Flour, and the Price from which the Assize of Bread shall be fixed or set, according to the Table annexed to this Act, the Amount of such Difference of Price shall be entered in a Book to be kept at the Market House in the said City of Cord for that Purpose; and when and so often as it shall appear, that upon such Differences being added together, such Differences amount to a sufficient Sum, either in favour of the Public, or of the Baker or other Person making Bread for Sale, to make a Variation in the Price of Bread of Half an Assize, then and in every such case the said Mayor of the City of Cord for the time being, shall and he is hereby required to make such Addition to or Deduction from the Average Price of Wheat and of Flour, and in setting the then next Assize of Bread, either to lower or to raise the same Half an Assize, as the case may require, accordingly as the Difference between the actual Prices of Wheat and Flour, and the Prices from which the Assize shall have been set, appear to be in favour of the Public, or of the Baker or other Person making Bread for Sale.

XI. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners may order and direct the Labelesters or Owners of the several Houses, Warehouses, Coach Houses, Stables or other Buildings in the Streets, Squares, Lanes, Courts, Alleys, Quays or Public Passages within the Limits aforesaid, to number their respective Houses, Warehouses, Coach Houses, Stables or other Buildings in such manner as they the said Commissioners shall think proper; and may also order and direct the Owners or Owners, Occupiers or Occupiers, Tenant or Tenants in Possession of any of the Stalls or Stalls in the Markets, or other Places within the Limits aforesaid, to affix his, her or their Name or Names, and the Number of his, her or their Stall or Stalls, on the respective Fronts thereof, at length, in legible Characters, in such manner as the said Commissioners shall direct; and if any such Person or Persons shall neglect to number his, her or their House or Houses, Warehouses, Coach Houses, Stables or other Buildings, or to affix his, her or their Name or Names and Number on his, her or their Stalls or Stalls as aforesaid; or if any Person or Persons shall wilfully or maliciously deface, pull down, obliterate or deface any such Name, Number or Description, or any Part thereof, or cause or procure the same to be done, every Person so offending shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings, at the Discretion of the said Commissioners, or any Two or more of them, upon Conviction upon Oath, before the said Commissioners, or any One or more of them, to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Offender.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners to build and erect such Oil Stores, Stables, Cart Houses, Sheds, Forges, Carpenters' Workshops, and other Offices as aforesaid, as they shall think necessary for the better carrying on the beneficial Purposes of the said recited Act, and of this Act; and to defray the Costs and Charges thereof from time to time, out of the Funds arising by virtue of the said recited Act, and of this present Act; and that in case it shall appear to the said Commissioners, to be more beneficial to the Public to purchase any such House, Houses, Warehouses, Stables, Stores, Store Yards or other Premises, than to hold the same respectively at an Annual Rent or Rents, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners, or any Two of them, from time to time, by and with the Consent and Approbation of the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governor of Ireland for the time being, to purchase any such House, Houses, Warehouses, Stables, Store Yards, Places and other Accommodations for the Purpose aforesaid, either in Perpetuity or for any Number of Years, and to lease down, or to pay a Fine for decreasing the Rent or Rents thereof respectively, and to pay the Amount of such Purchase Money or Fine out of the Funds vested in them by the said recited Act, or by this present Act; nevertheless to be subject to the Approbation of the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governor of Ireland for the time being.

XIV.
